Hello [REDACTED]

Greetings from College of Energy, Environment and Sustainability (CEES)! This is with reference to your admission to our online course in 'Water Sustainability'.

Unfortunately, we are not able to provide you the course in water sustainability and therefore CEES has taken the decision to refund the fees paid by you.

If you wish to select another course then you can select between the following courses that are available to be offered:

EP06: Sustainable Economic Development

EP09: Renewable Energy Technology, Economics and Policy.

Apologies for your inconvenience.

Awaiting your response.

Best Regards
Coordinator
