Aahh.. I know she's so cute.

thanks [REDACTED]. Sounds like a plan! good call on getting more cooler bags! Should probably grab some more ice packs too. [REDACTED] had asked Jojo to get the coconut waters and milk, so I think we will let him do that to help out. I'm going to ask Larry if he can pick up the remaining items in the basement on his way to the airport. Could you take a snap shot of all the stuff so he can have a sense of how much there is and if he can fit it in his vehicle(or if he will need to try and get a larger car). I think that makes more sense than having Jojo make another trip if he doesn't have to.

Let me know when you are at Kiehls. thanks chicas!

9 items are left downstairs. Including the two pieces of luggage, magazines and wrapped framed photos.

My plan for tomorrow is to pick up the food, juices (how many coconuts, juices, milk?), freezer bags/ soft coolers (x2 more as we have a lot being sent and seem to be down to only one here...), Kheils, and meet [REDACTED] at H2O. :)

Let me know if you gals think of anything else.

Any ideas/comments on doggie sedatives for the journey? Should we?

I actually thought about curling up and sleeping with the pooch... Damn she's cute and snuggly. Missing the cuteness already.

Sounds good. [REDACTED], how much stuff is left for the plane? Maybe Larry can pick the rest up from 71st on his way to the airport tomorrow?

I know...I just got a talking to about the fact that there is no water and coco milk in the fridge. ■ when you do the grocery shop can you check if they have some of the young coconuts as well...thank you. I think we can send Jojo out to get the milk and water from the Juice Press. He can go before or after his airport run.

perfect. ■ has to go to Film School in the morning, then somewhere with ■ at 11:30am. ■, maybe you can do the Kiehls stuff and whatever food things are left to buy in the morning, and then you and ■ can meet up after she's done with ■ to do the H2O stuff together since it will be alot more heavy stuff there. Maybe you can use Jojo too if JE doesn't need him. would be much easier. We should also get the coconut water and some coco milk too to bring down. So much shit!

>> Hey guys.. I will need one or both of you(might require 2 people) to do a run at H2O Plus, and Kiehls for products for guest rooms and for more JE shower gels, scrubs, lotions and shampoos. H2O plus is on Madison and 53rd. They also sell the products at most Duane Reade stores(like the one on 3rd and 65th), but I'm sure a much better selection would be to go to the store. They have alot of new scents of body washes and lotions and scrubs that look really nice.. see links below. I think we should also get the "Seamarine Haircare Duo" and "Bath Aquatics Haircare Duo" for all the guest rooms. Its a shampoo and conditioner together that is a bit less expensive since you're buying the "duo". but we definitely need more variety of smelly body washes, scrubs and lotions and also would get some bar soaps as well. Think for massage lotion possibilities too.
