> Thank you for you e-mail. I will call from a land line in about 30 minutes. To be clear, my previous four years of dental studies were in Belarus, not the U.S. My previous F-1 , was associated with my attendance at the Spanish American Institue. I will provide the telephone and contact numbers for the institute as well as all documentation that you require. If you could provide me a list of what you need I will have it brought over immediately, if it is currently in my possession. I have put together a package of the confirmation receipt of my asylum application, a copy of my passport and a copy of the F-1 visa. If you need to see proof of funds, I can also provide. If I understood correctly it appears that you were going on vacation and did not want to begin this until your return. That being said it will be delivered today to you. I hope you enjoy your vacation, and will call soon.

Your program is for 3 years, verses 4 years, based on the fact that you have received some transfer credits from your previous study in the U.S.

If your friend wants to drop off all the information you can provide regarding your request for reinstatement I will begin to review what is presented to me. I will need to talk with you over the phone or in person. I will also need to speak with the staff at international office at your previous school.

>>> Dear Ms Garner,
>>> Thank you for you kind assistance. As you are parobably already aware, I am requesting a new I-20, so as to enable me to apply for a reinstatement of my former F -1 visa status. I have been told that you need to see evidence of my current status. I am out of town and can fly back for the day if you so require. However, in the interim I have arranged for someone to bring to you on wednesday the evidence you have requested. The fact is that I have applied for asylum and await a hearing, I am told this will happen in late 2013 at the earliest. I will have delivered to you the I- 589 (asylum application) receipt from Immigration, as well as a copy of my passport and my former F-1 visa. If you would like to set a time to speak, and would email me same, I will call you at any time of your choosing tomorrow, and if you need any additional documents, they can be provided immediately. I sincerely would like to thank you in advance for your attention. Yours truly Karyna.
