

From: Dan Dugan ([REDACTED])

Subject: awakening the will in homeless adults

Date: Mon, 04 Sep 2000 05:01:18 +0000

OK, so if you're advisor's Anthroposophist Douglas Sloan, you can get a doctorate for doing a thesis about "awakening the will." Even if the program appeared to be a failure (two out of seven "made significant progress in will development), it's not that he was doing the wrong thing, it's that he didn't do it long enough. (sarcasm)