

John to do list

The DSL lines went down. According to the Bloomberg repair man they went down 12th. Please investigate and have them mended

Please check the bath plug in Miss Maxwell's bath room as it will not drain. Also the bathwater is brown. Make sure that you run the bath every week so that it is not brown

The time on all the phones are wrong. Please have adjusted to the right time

Please have the oxygen tank refilled

Unpack all the new knives and forks and put them away neatly into wooden knife and fork holders. Remove labels and take out of boxes

Clean the silver including the silver knives and forks and put them away into wooden knife and fork holders. These drawers should be felt lined

Put all the table mats and napkins into one drawer and throw all stained ones out

All bathrobes that are looking stringy should be put into a Ridel bag so that I can see them and decide where they should go
