

Dear Gmax,

I am on the morning flight to Miami on Tuesday 27th arriving at 1355 local in Miami. There is no connecting flight to St.Thomas until the next morning and so I have booked myself on the first available flight to San Juan instead arriving at 1801 an AA flight number. If there is an alternative to this let me know as well please.

Can you arrange a pick up in San Juan or do you want me to get the following morning flight? Let me know over night tonight so I can try to arrange things during the day tomorrow as it is a Bank holiday weekend here.

Love A. xxx
