Anything you can do in the line suggested by my friend Matej Minac, the producer, will be more than welcome.

You forgot to send me any address for Michael Blomberg so I am powerless!
Please do so fastish!

Much love and thanks in advance

As to what you do with Chloe who is twelve-going-18 in looks and behaviour, you first make sure than she does not run away with boys as she attracts them like fly, (she is very beautiful) as at 12 anything happening now would be a positive disaster, but apart from that, she is a good swimmer, and the discovery of life on a Caribbean island should be enough to occupy a girl of her age, the lucky so and so!

Much love

Maman
