As I said in my message last night I had a really good dinner with CB last night. Sorry I wasn't up at 0140 when you rang!
But Cazzy told me exactly what you had told me with much greater and graphic detail and so I knew when CB rang her what the score was and I told CB that you had said things weren't going well and that I was to ring him but you had told me nothing else (protect).
What a story and it would seem he is really angry and upset not so much by the outcome but by her behaviour towards him.
They met in the street not so long ago after the letter and it also seemed she was out of it and then told Louis everything they had discussed.
It is a nasty little episode and although he is getting over it, it is leaving a very bad taste in his mouth.
Apart from that he seems on an even keel! He took a flame to Knowsley for the weekend with whom he mutually broke up with after the summer.
He seemed quite happy with that and she went with him at less than 24 hours notice so he's not lost any of his abilities!
However I think we need to get him away from the UK for a short while like you did for me originally and he needs to be de-britished and un-uked!
As for the future he knows there are a great many wonderful girls some of whom are divorced with children and he can't deal with any of the baggage that comes with that aspect so he's still looking but not with much enthusiasm.
I am at a loss as to what to suggest other than the above.
Otherwise we had a great boys dinner at Harry's Bar and thought of you...not much!
Love you and completely understand you can't help on the AKE front this time!

A xxx
