Hello there Gx. Just wanted to let you know that Jack took another job offer but this is down in Southern CA, Orange county-Irvine area. The company that hired him to move out here was bought out and his job changed. For one, they asked him to work out of the house. Now you know there isn't a roof big enough for the two of us to be under 24/7. Right when I was just about to start sending out my resume he landed this. Now, I'm currently trying to get this condo rented out so that we don't have to pay a year's lease. Jack begins work in Orange County, Monday 12/16. I'll be looking for new places to live down there during that week and hopefully we'll be moving again beginning of Jan-end of Jan latest. It may be easier for me to get to see you now when you next come to LA! I'm not looking forward to moving again so soon but I am happy to be going where I wanted to be in the first place :) How are you? What are your birthday plans? Traveling? So... Lauren's pregnant, Lesley's getting married I see lot's of stuff happening at the office. Who knows maybe you really will end up needing me again in some long distance way. I'm always here for you. I think about you often and wish you nothing but happiness always! I'll keep you posted.

Cim
