Wondering if you had an opportunity to see the document I gave to the office staff? If not and you are curious, who am I kidding, you curious, you probably have seen it but if by some small chance you have not-----I sent an attachment. Open it .

The couture line of clothes is the best part of my days. What should a pet snob customer have but a true york-snob model and socialite.

I think you will like it.

Happy Birthday, oh shut up!! You should be like Jeffrey when he tells each girl that week in January that; "My birthday is today and I couldn't think of anyone but you to spend it with" You melt and shake your head thinking ...oh well it's his birthday one of these days and I am glad to spend the time with him anyway. I hope you have a fan ab lous one too!!!

Send my love to Jeffrey, and wish he a b.d. Greeting as well.

dg snobs.
