Dear All,

I have new business contact information...

As some of you already know, I now have a non-exclusive first-look producer deal at Fireworks Pictures and will continue working as an independent producer on several projects set up at Fireworks (Once a Thief, Room Full of Mirrors, A Life to Die For, Taking Wing). I will also be looking to develop new projects for the studios. Fireworks is very keen on partnering with studios on projects going forward and can provide, if needed, co-financing and foreign sales. In addition to which Fireworks can also provide domestic distribution for pictures budgeted under $7M.

I look forward to an exciting New Year!

Best,

Pliny Porter
