Dear Ghislaine

After a lengthy negotiation with my current landlord, Platero's Italian bed and breakfast, which may be closing down next week (another problem with the linnen), can I take you up on your offer and come and stay with you next tuesday and wednesday. On wednesday there is the book launch - see below for your invite to which I expect you to bring at least one ex-president....

And Now I've just spoken to you. I'm supposed to arrive at La Guardia at 10pm, so would probably get to you by 11pm.

Please dump me back in Italian bedsit if remotely complicated.

Love

John
