hi ghislaine !

well i just wanted you to know how much im looking forwards to visiting you in new york- it has been so very long since i last did see you.one of the reasons i emailed you was to ask you if you could give me any idea whatsoever of what you might have planned ?oh and do not presume that because i am 15that i do not know how to have a good time ! so please do not limit the possibilities of what we could do with my age! (ive skipped a grade and am dating an older woman ! :) (so to speak :)))

ok well i cant wait to see you !

ive got to run-
lots of love
your nephew
xavier
