I'm going tomorrow to watch a similar trial in the same courthouse in Nassau, and there's a good case that this guy didn't do it. As to the Friedmans, who knows...

Wednesday is good. Let's meet around 8PM for a nice dinner and catch up. I'll find a place.

Next week is good, perhaps Wednesday or Thursday. Let me know.

Having you seen Andrew and Eugene's movies. I saw Capturing the Friedmans on Friday. I'm curious what you think.

I'll wait to give you the trouble when I see you - too much of it for one little e mail. Glad all is well and I look forward to our anniversary dinner - what is next week like for you?

I was so glad to hear from you. All is copacetic. Spent 8 days in the jungles (urban and natural) of Nicaragua and Honduras with Grant (who promptly upon return moved to London for work) and now am deep into some interesting cases: immigration scam, insurance fraud scam, hotel defraud scam. Lots to do, but certainly not too swamped to see you, if you are around, my dear.

I do miss you. We've now know each other for just about a year. Let's mark the occasion.

What trouble have you been causing all these weeks?
