Nice hearing from you! I'm very excited with the idea of having a "book"... I've been down in sotogrande trying to make summer a bit longer, but now I'm back to work with lots of interesting deals on the table (business side). By the way, I made quite a big effort writing off my "other deals", so now I feel ready for a new round... we'll see...

Thanks very much for your pictures, we keep in touch.
Big kiss
