Dear Ghislaine,

Thank you for your email which I have only read recently with disbelief. I have not answered your email as I have been overseas traveling.

The excuse of Mr Epstein saying he will not pay me due to Stephen Galistinos not working out has no bearing on the monies that is owing to me.

I have tried my best to be professional about this matter and part on good terms between ourselves as both you and Mr Epstein and I agreed to prior to my departure but Mr Epstein seems insistent in not helping in the matter and I only see discord in the future between us.

As much as I dislike doing this I have no option to look at recouping the monies that is owed to me by Mr Epstein by any means possible which includes the courts. I will have no alternative to pursue this matter as I am determined to recover the monies that is owed to me.

Please would you intercede again and speak to Mr Epstein and ask for his final answer and let me know before I proceed to recover the monies he owes me as I see fit.

I thank you for your assistance as always, both Faith and Edwina send their love and are fit and well.

I look forward to hearing from you in the near future with a positive answer.

Kind regards,

Nick Simmonds.
