

From: Dr Maxwell <[REDACTED]>

To: Ghislaine Maxwell <[REDACTED]>

Subject: It has nice hearing your cheerful voice last night and personal Urgent message

Date: Mon, 05 Apr 2004 14:36:27 +0000

How lovely to hear you my darling sounding intrigued at your situation and happy.

You do put me in a spot always when you ask me without any warning to speak to a young man I do not know at all, most of the times). At least I knew who Ted was and did not lose my head as I hope to see you both in Fraytet very soon!

If you come by helicopter, you can certainly land on my lawn which is big enough but you must just be careful of the high tension line which runs parallel, close by! I would not like to see your helicopter burning in front to my eyes with you in it! We will make a Big white H so you cannot miss it and I believe that the Mayor of the village has to be told about it or the local police. All I know is that there are some regulations about landing a helicopter on private land in France!

My darling, I do not know what is up with the pension money but one was the 5th and it has not yet arrived, so surely your banker did not understand your instructions and did not send the regular payment! I am worried because otherwise I will be overdrawn and every time the I am overdrawn over the regular amount there is new law now and they charge me a penalty of £25 and as it is the period for direct debit, it soon runs into hundreds of £s, they charge you £25 even for a £9 cheque overdrawn!

Please kindly do something urgently

With all my love

maman