I am going to go to Paris tom. I'll see you either in Europe or back in US.

I am planning to go to spa/Stfe/Caribbean from the 7th Dec for a week. I would love it if you can figure out a way to join me otherwise I might have to keep you co. in Miami during the new OJ Simpson trial that I think is starting that week.

I trust you are having fun w/your parents and that you are not keeping them out as late as you are staying out - Is Baron's spending more time on his favorite hobby with them in residence? (Dying the carpets a soft yellow colour)
