> > This hasn't been broken since September 11,

> that time. In memory

> > all those who perished this morning; the > passengers and the pilot on > > the > > United Air and AA flights, the workers in the > World Trade Centre and > prayers go out to the

> > IF I KNEW...

> > If I knew it would be the last time
> > That I'd see you fall asleep
> > I would tuck you in more tightly > > and pray the Lord, your soul to keep.

> > If I knew it would be the last time
> > that I see you walk out the door,
> > I would give you a hug and kiss > > and call you back for one more.

> > If I knew it would be the last time
> > I'd hear your voice lifted up in praise,
> > I would video tape each action and word
> > so I could play them back day after day.

> > If I knew it would be the last time
> > I could spare an extra minute, > > to stop and say "I LOVE YOU"
> > instead of assuming you would know I do.

> > If I knew it would be the last time
> > I would be there to share your day,
> > Well I'm sure you'll have so many more,
> > so I can let just this one slip away.

> > For surely there's always tomorrow > > to make up for an overnight, > > to make everything just right.

> > There will always be another day
> > to say "I love you",
> > And certainly there's another chance

> > But just in case I might be wrong > > and today is all I get,
> > I'd like to say how much I love you > > and I hope we never forget.

> > Tomorrow is not promised to anyone,
> > young or old alike,
> > And today may be the last chance > > you get to hold your loved one tight.
> > So if you're waiting for tomorrow,
> > why not do it today?
> > For if tomorrow never comes,
> > you'll surely regret the day.
> > That you didn't take extra time > > for a smile, a hug, or a kiss

> > So hold your loved ones close today

> > Take time to say "I'm sorry,"
> > "Please forgive me," "Thank You," or "It's OK"
> > And if tomorrow never comes, > > you'll have no regrets about today.
