I was so glad to hear from you. All is copacetic. Spent 8 days in the jungles (urban and natural) of Nicaragua and Honduras with Grant (who promptly upon return moved to London for work) and now am deep into some interesting cases: immigration scam, insurance fraud scam, hotel defraud scam. Lots to do, but certainly not too swamped to see you, if you are around, my dear.

I do miss you. We've now know each other for just about a year. Let's mark the occasion.

What trouble have you been causing all these weeks?

Louis
