Dear Isabel,

How are you? Unfortunately, the Piaget invitations have the RSVP going to the wrong tel number, and they have printed out Reminder Cards that we can send out with the right number. (They had our fax number instead of our phone number). So if you need any of them sent to anyone please let me know.

Do you know if Ghislaine is planning to come and if she is bringing others?

FYI: Piaget will be showcasing the latest line called Pearllissima which incorporates pearls into the new designs, and the designer will be having lunch with us as well.

xoo

Mona
