```
<html>

<blockquote type=cite class=cite cite>Date: Mon, 13 Jan 2003 08:05:33 -0800 (PST)
To: ████████████████
From: &quot;eFax&quot; &lt;████████████████&gt;
Subject: How to change your eFax number
X-Accept-Language: en

Dear Ms,
 eFax is now offering a new limited supply of local 212 numbers. We'd like to give you first pick of this fresh new inventory.
<ul>
<li>Send and receive faxes via email
<li>Opt out of third-party advertising
<li>No extra hardware
<li>A local fax number good enough for your business card
</ul>Choose a local 212 eFax number and get it free for a month.

These numbers are in limited supply.

Sign up on the web or call - (800) 958-2983 - and get your local eFax number now!

You received this message because you are registered as an eFax Free member.
Your eFax number is 1-786-524-3838. You are subscribed as ████████████████.
 eFax Free accounts are supported by advertising, as explained in your Terms of Service. If you wish to opt out of third party advertising, you may upgrade to an eFax Plus account.

Or you may unsubscribe and <a href="████████████████████████!29f5922cf57c7c9a?
████████████████">close your eFax Free account.

Terms of Service | Privacy Policy

Email sent by eFax using software from M4Internet.</blockquote></html>
```