I have other pictures - me receiving my flight briefing, me kissing my co pilot when my feet touched the ground again, me with the President of Colombia who invited me and organized the whole shindig - including the terrorists running around for me to aim at, me doing a back flip in the helicopter, me flying over the top of the amazon at 3ft above the canopy at 200 mph - you get the drift? + I have the special fitted head gear + 2 live rounds of 7 inch long bullets that I was given as a souvenir in my office at home ready for show and tell when you next come over
