

From: "G. Max" <[REDACTED]>
To: "Louis O'Neill" <[REDACTED]>
Subject: Re: Hi there!
Date: Sat, 01 Jan 4501 05:00:00 +0000

<html>

I'll wait to give you the trouble when I see you - too much of it for one little e mail. Glad all is well and I look forward to our anniversary dinner - what is next week like for you?

G

At 11:09 AM 6/14/2003 -0400, you wrote:

<blockquote type=cite class=cite cite>I was so glad to hear from you. All is copacetic. Spent 8 days in the jungles (urban and natural) of Nicaragua and Honduras with Grant (who promptly upon return moved to London for work) and now am deep into some interesting cases: immigration scam, insurance fraud scam, hotel defraud scam. Lots to do, but certainly not too swamped to see you, if you are around, my dear.

I do miss you. We've now know each other for just about a year. Let's mark the occasion.

What trouble have you been causing all these weeks?

Louis

<blockquote type=cite class=cite cite>----- Original Message -----

From: G Max

To: Louis O'Neill

Sent: Friday, June 13, 2003 8:48 AM

Subject: Re: Loads o' fun

Just thought I would drop you a line and check up on you . I have not heard any sound from you and want to make sure you are not swamped with work

Kisses

Gx</blockquote></blockquote></html>