

Mr. Epstein was indicted by a state grand jury after a one year investigation for solicitation of prostitution. No/more no less. He was accused and was willing to admit hiring prostitutes to come to his house. Prostitutes from Florida , in his palm beach home. The palm beach police , unhappy with the result of the grand jury , took their complaint to the local Assistant U. S. Attorney Ann Maire Villafana . An up and coming forty something woman that lived with her boyfriend. Though all the actions and actors, were local to Florida, Ms. Villafana saw an opportunity to make a name for herself. Her reputation sullied in the past by being chastised by Judge Zloch lying to the court.

In this instance Ms. Villafana , brought the entire weight of the federal gov;’t to bear. Though there was no allegations of crossing state lines. Mr Epstein lived in New York and Florida. She threatened to charge him for the first time in US history , with the crime of TRAVELING OUT HIS OWN HOME for the purpose of having underage sex. No matter that the girls in question were young prostitutes above the age of 16. The age of consent in New York and the surrounding states. No matter that he traveled to Florida almost every weekend , because his mother lived there, she threatened Mr Epstein with the following.

We add that his legal defense team , comprised of luminaries in their field, all to the man or woman , said that they had never, ever , seen a threatened prosecution that was so far afield of the bounds of both federalism and the law.

The threat of extortion is clear. Ms Villafana demanded , always with the threat of a federal indictment cocked in her gun and repeatedly threatened to be launched Mr Epstein would have to avoid that bullet, have to agree to the following . As you read the next few paragraphs, you will be tempted to say, no, that’s impossible, that is the same reaction by each and every member of his defense team That team comprised of both conservatives. Ken Starr, former solicitor general, now dean of Pepperdine University, Roy Black, the trial lawyer made famous for his defense in the Kennedy sex case, Alan Dershowitz, the Harvard law professor,, Guy Lewis , former U.S. Attorney for the southern district, Jay Bykofsky the partner of Kirkland and Ellis , held to be the top litigation team in the U. S. , Jerry Lefcourt, former head of the National defense council. All to the man were in the end helpless to deal with an Assistant U.S. Attorney that demanded the following. We have never spoken out about this, but the agreement to which this release refers, was just made public.

1. That Mr Epstein , without the right to know the names contained on a list of Ms. Villafana’s choosing , a list of girls that she said, without allowing a challenge or presenting any evidence, would have to pay each girl a minimum of 50 thousand dollars, and he would have to agree to the list before he saw the names and would only have access to it until he was behind bars.
2. That he would have to pay for an attorney to represent the girls if they chose to sue him

3. he would have to go to the state and ask them to give him a jail sentence and craft an additional charge . she included a selection for mr Epstein to choose from, as long as he would be required to register as a sex offender..HE would not have the opportunity to even have the theory of her case. It was do this or else , both he and his three assistants and girlfriend would all be charged with federal crimes.
4. Federal crimes.. what federal crimes.. all the actors, and acts were in the state of Florida.
5. So the argument that she crafted was , as there were on the federal books laws against traveling to Thailand to have sex with underage boys or girls, and because Thailand , did not have the resources to stop people in the united staes from traveling to their country to exploit children,,, yes children, 10-14 year olds in most instances, Ms vilafana said she would charge Epstein with traveling to florida, for he purpose of having sex with 17 year old girls for money. Traveling for the purpose of having sex, traeling to his home of 12 years. Traveling to the place where hismother and friends all vacactioned. The defense team consistently met with , if you don't do as I ask I will indict him, DO you want to take a chane with a jury of locak poor people.
6. I f that were not inique enough she also threatened to use the statute that prevents child predators from surfing the internet, and claim that as mr Epsteins secretairy called to set up massage appointment using a phone (a means of interstae commerce, he could be charge with an internet luring offense tha carried with it a mandatory sentence of ten years, . Yes , if he saw them on the street in florida or new york , a misdemeanor, if he called them on the phone while they stood across the street a, under her view a ten year minimum federal prison term.
7. Though there was no intercourse involved , she also threatened to use the most vicious of crimes sthat of sex slavery, for girls who wnet to their friends in school and said ,hey , woul d you like to give a topless massage to an older man in palm beach.. These were the girls that came to his house. He never went out searching, he never searched the internet, the police report staes that the girls told them they were 18.. the alleged fourteen year old , whose picture on the internet listed her self proclaimed age as 18 and then 19, also had sworn to the police, before here was any talk of money, that she was told to lie about her age and she did, because s the statement goes on to say" Mr. Epstein wouldnot let you in the ohouse if ehe thought youwre under 18.
8. Girls who gave statements to the police and fbi, how there was never any force or coercion, the single girl that did later apoligzed to mr Epstein saying the police wanted her to say something bad so she did. The fbi statement form one of the current Jane Does, is as follows.. a girl that advertised her sex servies in a sex mag, worked in the local masssge parlor , way before she met mr epstein, now claims all her emotional damage on him.
9. Unbekownset to most people the usattrney was able to get all mr Epstein madecal records. In an attemmp to show wrongding,, she also threatened to charge him with money laundereing though the money he spent on prostitution was soley his own and after tax. She threatened to charge him with running an illegal money wiring business though he never had one.. She subpoenaed his investigator , and asked for his telephone records in an attempt to find out what investigation he was doing on behalf of the girls. She organized an attorney to represent one of the girls that was being subpoenaed in the state case.
