

The shocking testimony of Jane Doe versus Jeffrey Epstein

The first surprise for her attorney was when Jane Doe said she'd prefer that Epstein be in the room during her testimony. She said she was unaware that her attorney filed an action to keep him out due to her fear of intimidation. The next few hours were filled with the attorney affirmatively violating the court's order, telling his client not to answer questions re her sexual history. Though the judge had already ruled. Told his client, not to give the name of her sister, falsely asserting a right to privacy. -odd that he just finished the useless deposition of Epstein's brother, with the full knowledge that he had no knowledge of the case.

1. Hardly the innocent victim she claimed to be. After a methodical questioning by Mark Lutier, gentle respectful but surgical. The Jane Doe admitted that virtually her entire statement under oath to the FBI was a lie. We can now see why she didn't want her name used, on her first of what will be many days of sworn testimony, she swore that her attorney had filled in her answers incorrectly and then had to plead the fifth on at least 40 occasions when the questions regarding the truthfulness of her statements became apparent. First. It seems she wasn't exactly broke as she alleged, or as she began her tale of woe she claimed she was working for the minimum wage of 750 per hour. She shocked everyone in the room when she admitted to being an escort call girl, sex worker, and stripper since the age of 14.

2. She worked at multiple strip clubs massage parlors where every girl had to prove they were 18 to work there. It seemed as if there was no club that she didn't work.

3 She said men paid as high as 2000 dollars per day. Sometimes she traveled with them. After admitting to being a prostitute, she confessed that she kept records of her earnings disguised inside a book of psalms, so that her four-year-old son would not find out. .

4. She had sex with two brothers, one who eventually became her baby's father.

5, claimed she brought all her escort friends to Epstein, including other prostitutes told them to lie about their ages. And was paid 200 dollars for bringing them. This wasn't; enough money, she said because she wanted better clothes, so though she started her testimony with an obviously well rehearsed statement saying that she didn't want any money from Epstein, only justice, she then miraculously changed her mind, and said she would do or say anything to get his money.

After admittedly lying to the FBI, she then refused to testify about the truthfulness of her own written answers supplied under oath only last month.

Though she admits to having sex with hundreds of Johns, including all types of sex. She says Epstein as a John, never asked for sex with her and she never even touched his genitals. She said he was always respectful, and never asked anyone to do anything that they didn't want to do She repeated over and over how every girl was told Exactly what to expect. before they went to his house. However, she blames all her trauma on him. She testified that she never saw a shrink until in her words "her attorney that filed her present damage case told her to.

She freely admitted that she would say anything to get money. She refused to answer questions about her advertisements for sex in the local sex magazine. She refused to answer questions about her activities in the massage parlors, spas, and strip clubs.

She attacked the defense attorneys for only wanting money, and went on to say sometimes it only took her two minutes to make a thousand dollars, so there! She did not deny that her mother was also a prostitute, She denied ever having a fake I'd, though every adult place that she worked required it.

She refused to answer questions about the names of her drug dealers but reeled off a list. Of her preferences with the skill of a senior druggist for certain drugs, including Percocet's xanax , Valium ecstasy, marijuana, cocaine,

Though she had intercourse with hundreds of men, and no sex at all with Epstein, a jury might find it hard to believe that he is the one solely responsible for her mental state.
