

Jeffrey E. Epstein

Dear Jeffrey:

Thank you for everything you do to promote and advance New York. We live in the greatest city, in the greatest state, in the greatest country in the world, and I am so proud to represent it in the U.S. Congress. I am looking forward to this year in large part because I am confident Democrats will make significant advances in the upcoming elections, but also because I will be celebrating my 50th birthday, and it is my hope you will be a part of this event.

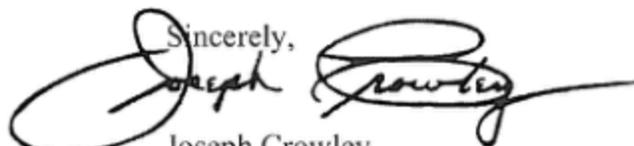

The celebration will be held on March 29, 2012 from 6:00pm to 8:00pm at the Manhattan Ballroom of the Grand Hyatt on 42nd Street. As part of the evening, I will live out my childhood dream of becoming a rock star by forming a one-night-only all-star band called "The Host Committee," and I want to invite you to join my band. Now don't worry, I won't make you sing, play an instrument, or even get on stage (although, you can be sure I will do all three). All it takes to join the band is your support. Those who write or raise $10,000 will be listed as Lead Vocalists, $5,000 as Lead Guitarists, $2,500 as Rhythm Guitarists and $1000 as Drummers.

This event, however, is about more than my birthday. You will be supporting me so I can continue my efforts to elect Democrats to office and return Congress' focus to the issues that matter to the American people.

As I said, America is the greatest nation in the world, but times are tough right now. If we are going to remain strong, we need to start making progress on the things that matter: creating jobs, preserving Social Security and Medicare, and keeping America's middle class vibrant and growing. Unfortunately, the Republican-controlled Congress has spent most of its time threatening to shut down the government.

What we need is a Congress and a President who can work in partnership with one another, who can get things done to move America forward together. But, I need people like you to support me if we are going to succeed in this effort.

March 29th is going to be a wonderful evening filled with friends, family and colleagues, but your participation will help to make the night a truly special occasion. If you're able to be there, please contact Walter Swett at [REDACTED] or [REDACTED].

Sincerely,

 Joseph Crowley
 Member of Congress

[REDACTED]. Again, it would mean a great deal to me if you joined "The Host Committee." Please complete the attached form and return it via fax or email today. Thank you!
