Your successful purchase in DESIGN

Sale PF1704 - 17 May 2017

Congratulations on your recent purchase. We are pleased to provide the information necessary for finalising your transaction.

- Invoice for 45.500,00 EUR

Your payment is now due. Your invoice gives instructions on how to pay.

- Collecting your new property

Once your payment has cleared, you may pick up your purchase from us or arrange to have it collected. If you plan to have someone else collect your property, you will need to submit a letter of authorisation prior to the person picking up the property, and the person will be asked to present identification. Alternatively, we can arrange the shipping for you. If you prefer this option, please contact us for a shipping quote.

- Providing identification

We are unable to complete your transaction without proof of identification. Please provide us with this documentation as soon as possible.

Liability for loss or damage

Buyers are reminded that Sotheby's accepts liability for loss or damage to lots for a maximum period of 30 calendar days after the auction. Please refer to Condition XX of the Conditions of Business for Buyers.

Request for identification

Sotheby's requires all clients to present government-issued identification to confirm their identity. Individual clients are requested to provide a copy of a passport, driver's licence or other government-issued identification card containing a photograph and address. Corporate clients are requested to provide a copy of a Certificate of Incorporation or other government-issued document indicating the bona fide existence of the corporation, as well as proof of the individual's authority to act on behalf of the corporation. If you have any questions about the appropriate type of identification document, please contact Post Sale Services.

Shipping services

Sotheby's offers a comprehensive shipping service. If you have received a shipping quotation or have any questions about the services we offer, please contact Post Sale Services.

When Sotheby's is responsible for shipping property outside the European Union, an invoice may be reissued without taxes (as applicable) once Post Sale Services has received a shipping quote signed by the buyer.

If you make your own arrangements, the invoice must be paid in full including taxes, then taxes may be refundable under certain circumstances after the property has been exported.

Exporting property

The export of any lot from France or import into any other country may be subject to one or more export or import requirements or restrictions. It is the buyer's sole responsibility to obtain any necessary export and import authorisation. The denial of any licence or delay in obtaining such licence shall not justify cancellation or rescission of the sale or any delay in payment.

Sotheby's upon request and for an administrative fee may apply for a licence to export your lot(s) outside France.

If you require any further information about the export of your property, please contact Post Sale Services.

Sales and use tax

Sotheby's is required to collect sales tax in the states of CA and NY, as such, we are required by law to collect and remit the appropriate sales tax on property delivered into the states. For property delivered into any other U.S. state, we recommend that the transaction be discussed with your local tax advisor.

Local Tax Advisor

Sotheby's recommends that clients with questions regarding U.S. sales or use taxes related to property purchased at auction should seek tax advice from their advisors.

Collection

In order to collect your property the following is required:

- Your payment in full (including any interest, handling and storage charges due) must be received and cleared.
- The person collecting must present valid identification as noted in "Request for Identification".
- You must provide written authorisation for anyone collecting on your behalf. Please include the person's full name and the property to be collected.

All lots will be available for collection during, or after each session of the sale either at 76 rue du Faubourg Saint-Honoré or at 6 rue Duras, 75008 Paris, on presentation of the paid invoice with the release authorisation from Post Sale Services.

We recommend that our buyers contact our Post Sale Services department in order to organise the shipment of their purchases once payment has been cleared. Once the sale is complete the property may be transferred to a third party warehouse:

Please note that handling costs and storage fees are borne by Sotheby's during the first 30 days after the sale, and will be at the buyer's expense after this time.

Storage and handling charges

Any purchased lots that have not been collected within 30 days from the date of the auction will be subject to handling and storage charges at the following rates:

Small items (such as jewellery, watches, books or ceramics): Handling fee of 25 EUR per lot plus storage charges of 2.50 EUR per day per lot.

Paintings, Furniture and Medium items (such as most paintings or small items of furniture): Handling fee of 35 EUR per lot plus storage charges of 5 EUR per day per lot.

Paintings and Large items (items that cannot be lifted or moved by one person alone): Handling fee of 50 EUR per lot plus storage charges of 10 EUR per day per lot.

Oversized items (such as monumental sculptures): Handling fee of 100 EUR per lot plus storage charges of 12 EUR per day per lot.

A lot's size will be determined by Sotheby's on a case by case basis (typical examples given above are for illustration purposes only).

All charges are subject to VAT, where applicable.

All charges are payable to Sotheby's at Post Sale Services.

Storage charges will cease for purchased lots which are shipped through Sotheby's from the date on which we have received a signed quote acceptance and its payment from you.
