Off The Record: Tamara Mellon Friday, December 18th, 6:30–8 PM The Screening Room

In a world where truly private discourse is hard to come by, NeueHouse will host a monthly discussion with an industry icon that exists “off the record.” To create a space conducive to candidness and truth, guests will be asked to hand in their cellphones and refrain from posting content on social media. This month, we will go “off the record” with Tamara Mellon, the co-founder of Jimmy Choo and a former editor at Vogue UK. She’ll take us through her journey, from her stint in rehab to her rise to fashion tycoon. The conversation—a 30 minute talk followed by 30 minutes of Q&A—will take place in the Screening Room.
