Yes, a 30 x 60 room will fit. I'll work up a few sketches...the elevations will be loose off of the photographs.

Also, sheeting order and throws will be to Rich today. We're sending the sheeting directly to the island, there are 4 sets with different types of linen (all the same gauge, just slightly different "feel.")

One throw is here in Chicago the other shipping from Scotland, we'll have a local group here roll the edge, and then we'll ship to your directly in NYC or wherever...and/or I can bring to you.

Larry Shar with Lowy has looked at photographs of the table now in the stair hall, he and are speaking today to determine when someone can come by to work on the top. We'll look at doing a few other touch ups as well, on the base, as there are slight marks in the lacquer.

I'm also speaking with Raymond Jungles today, the landscaper in Miami that maybe could work on the island here's his website www.raymondjungles.com not a lot color and you'll see both residential and commercial work. He's a much larger group than the ladies. Will keep you updated.

My best,
Amy
