Hey there,

We're launching a new Test Channel feature today. Each month we will be sharing a sneak preview of what our sound lab focus experts are working on. This contains approximately 45 minutes of material, so we can get feedback from you before we build out the full version of the channel.

The October Beta Test has an intense "Big Room Trance" electronica feel, with a lot of very fast positive energy. It features all new exclusive tracks that you will ONLY hear on focus@will.

If you find that the Up Tempo High Energy setting works well to help you focus and get stuff done, but the ADD Type 1 channel is too intense, this might be the perfect thing for you.

Check it out and tell us what you think to get $10 off an annual subscription!

Best Regards,

Will and your focus team
