They told us that if we want we can consider to go through the Kuwaiti Company (if they agree) and get the agency through and under them. But this may not be feasible. We do not want to pressure you on this, but if the Starbucks management can consider us directly for the region we requested, it would be good. I understand that Starbucks have there concern in granting franchise of a very large region to a different and unknown entity, when they already have a trusted partner in the region. You can check with your friends if this is something they could consider. Thanks.

I had my first call yesterday with Starbucks, President of Global Retail, Mr. John Culver.

Mr. Mohammed Alshaya in Kuwait is their agent for the Middle East and some Asian regions. So in case of expansion their preference is to go with Alshaya, whom they already have a good rapport with and trust. If you have any opinions, comments let me know.
