Hi! I hope you are fine!!!!

I was looking for a place to move, as you told me. I watched the rooms, and sometimes it was funny, and sometimes just awful. In the downtown more expensive. ((

Apartments were small, the buildings are old and dirty. People who searched for roommates were either odd (eg 3 guys in an apartment that smells like marijuana), or the woman who lives with a dog, and in her small apartment horrible smell (I love animals but hate the bad smell). Besides, she probably was looking for a someone to adopt as grandmother.

. I also saw a very small room, which would not fit even a full size bed, not that my stuff, and rooms cost from 1,100 and above. My friend is renting a room in 1300 and I think it's stupid, because such terms can donate a little extra money and live independently in the studio. It was very difficult to find all consistent - right place (district), price, room size and the people with whom it would be nice to live. Cheap apartments only in Harlem and Eastwood. There's even scary in broad daylight.

And I have an idea.

What if I try to rent the whole apartment in normal (not dangarouse) area and then I can find themselves roommates who will help me pay if paid suddenly become start to hard. (Of course, I would love to live alone).

In this case, I will focus on finding a normal place and then I can have to choose who I want to live. And soon the summer - will come a lot of students I can find a nice girl for the separation of the lease, if I can not pay for everything myself or if somebody no help:) Besides, if I have a lease in my name - this will help me start building my credit history in this state.

Then I started to watch the studio on the internet and stumbled on a broker. He began to show me the studios. I asked for no more than 1500. I saw a lot of different studios. But since it's low price, they were mostly very small, not new and dark. Windows overlooking the wall, where not even have sunlight. I asked the studio to show me, because it's cheap, but he suggested that I look one to one bedroom apartment. It is the most expensive at $ 200, but there are repairs, all white and clean, lots of windows (I love the sunshine!) There's simply wonderful! And the location of the apartment is close to subway and bus stops (81 street and 3 Avenue). There's so comfortable and cozy! And even the agent was surprised that such a nice apartment in such a low price, and we thought it was a mistake in the documents. But when he checked, it turned out all right. I fell in love with this apartment and I was the first who saw it. And I hope I'll be there live ... I took the lease fot to the filling. Friends promise to help with garanterom. The process has already begun and I am very excited to get it. I hope that this person fits my garanter. We collect the documents, but I'm afraid that everything is moving very slowly and I do not have time to move into the apartment before I will need to free up your place. I'll try to find a temporary place for a while yet is filling and checking of documents at the apartment. It is so hard for me and makes me a little crazy, but I hope for the best.

By the way, can I see why you said that I can not stay on those few days with [REDACTED], if I will suddenly do not have time to move? Maybe I even would not have had to ask, or even would have not thought such an idea, but it was unpleasant to hear about such your decision ...

In any case, I'm certainly very grateful to you for this opportunity to live this month in 10n. Thank you very much!.

Hope to see you soon ...

Take care and BE SAFE in the jungle.

I wait for you
