Hello Jeffrey,

Jungles.... no playboys..... lucky you! In London there are too many of them.

Thank you for the reading assignment. By the way, I do know when Seneka lived.
It is funny that you advice me books, because when we were talking on Saturday, you made me think about one of my most favourite book, "The Magus" of John Fowles. Did you read it? You remind me the magus.
It is difficult for me to choose a book for you, no doubt, you have read thousands.

Have a great time, wherever you are.

P.s. : concerning putting names before P.S. - why loosing my time and your attention on the formalities.
P.s. : I am sorry for using "playboy" word, I did not find how to write the polite version of the term, that you told me on Saturday.
