Greetings all Compas point doesn't have a boatyard, the only yard is independent, boatyard and they do not allow spraying. Their contractor is Kenny who we had issues with. The cost, of ferry is 350 per day and we need to count on being without lilc for a month. This week there were 3 days of solid rain.

Please advise

Thankyou

Carlos

Afternoon Carlos

JE believes that there is a high chance that Little C could have its Paint Work completed locally at Compass Point Marine. Could you please investigate this option

Also still waiting for the cost of Water Taxi while Little C is down, clearly that could be different if Little C does not go to Tortolla

Thanks

All the best

Karen
