No I asked you when we where sitting down then u wanted to walk to see alan- that's when conversation continued

How we have according to you pulled in another 2.9mm yes have these AP that are past due

And info on hotel operations
Which you said there was $550k to be released by the bank to clean up all AP

Need to know what's total AP due for hotel
Including the 2 months for employees benefits that have not been paid and exact release date
Not sure what howie and Stacy want --

In fairness to me,
You asked for this as we were crossing a street and I tried to explain it to you and thought it better to draw you a picture, while we sat together

As you know the bank did not fund the hotel payroll last night so I had to make sure that got funded which I did personally

So I made a choice which took priority

I will bring the big picture up to date in a format that I think you want to see

From our brief conversation and your email this is what you want to know

- 1.Total cost of project
- 2.Breakdown of those costs
- 3.Funding to date of those costs
- 4.Balance what's left to fund
- 5.How does balance get funded

David
This was not my question
My question is actual where we are today
This to me is like your playing games
I was specific in today's emails with my exact request
This is what we spoke about earlier that you said you would rather write out
The below is not the info I'm requesting
Need answers to my earlier emails
