

From: Cecile de Jongh <[REDACTED]>

To: JEE <jeevacation@gmail.com>

Date: Mon, 09 Jul 2012 16:22:48 +0000

More Info:

Edward Maguire

Department Chair, Justice, Law and Society

Ed Maguire is Associate Professor and Chair in the Department of Justice, Law & Society at American University. He has held previous positions at George Mason University, the University of Nebraska, the U.S. Department of Justice, and the United Nations. Professor Maguire's professional interests cover a wide range, but most of his work focuses on three topics: police organizations, violent crime, and social science measurement. Professor Maguire is invited regularly to speak on topics related to crime and justice throughout the United States and around the world. He has written or edited three books and more than 40 articles and chapters on various themes related to policing, crime, criminal justice, organization theory, and social science methodology. In his spare time, he enjoys carpentry, martial arts, and spending time with his family. Degrees -B.S. in Criminal Justice, University of Lowell (1991); M.A./Ph.D., Criminal Justice, University at Albany, SUNY (1992/1997)

Web Sites:

<http://www.edmaguire.net/>

News Articles:

<http://stthomassource.com/content/news/local-news/2012/06/20/capacity-combat-gang-violence-conference-hot-topic>

With warm regards,

Cecile

DISCLAIMER: The information contained in this e-mail may be privileged, confidential, and protected from disclosure. If you are not the intended recipient, you are hereby notified that any dissemination, distribution or duplication of this communication is strictly prohibited. If you have received this communication in error, please notify the sender immediately and delete all copies.

"Nearly all men can stand adversity, but if you want to test a man's character, give him power." ~ Abraham Lincoln

 Please consider the environment before printing this e-mail.