Is the Iran Nuclear Deal Working as Expected?

Professor Mohammed Nuruzzaman of the Gulf University for Science and Technology in Kuwait noted that the JCPOA has not produced the change in behavior Obama anticipated. "Washington, to its deep frustration, has noticed that it simply made a series of unfounded calculations about Iran," he said. "Just three months after the deal was concluded, Khamenei closed the door to U.S.-Iranian cooperation by imposing an outright ban on further negotiations with the United States." Nuruzzaman added that Khamenei also ruled out cooperation with the "Great Satan" on regional issues.

#BDSFail on Campus, Part 2

As I have repeatedly argued in this blog, focusing on students is misleading because the real menace on campus comes from faculty. On that front, the news is not as sanguine. On the positive side, the fear that after the adoption of boycott resolutions by three minor associations in prior years, the more significant
