Jeffrey - thank u - I am verge of getting back to what I am - I know it 's difficult to understand but I'm at a critical point in my Cal Neva deal. If I cannot fund my half of legal fees the project will remain at a stand still - what I need is for someone to believe in me and what I do to build back my credibility - but I'm running out of time - I have the knowledge, personal contacts and history of success to source and complete transactions - ur thoughts would be appreciated - and, u know how much I appreciate ur help and advise - Nick
