i thought you were going to have Ed move boat last friday you need to be firm with ed has it has now been 13 days since he was paid and that was his excuse for not moving prior to being paid thank you

Hi
Ed said boat was buried deep in Nick's shop,,and Zed was clearing space for the Nautica this week, the boat will be moved to Zed on Thursday, (sounds like Bull to me,) at least we will have quote from Zed by COB Thursday,, and moving fwd,, Speak to you tomorrow early morn before you have to meet with JE,,

Thx
Larry

Hi,,
Ed indicates he'll move the Nautica from Nick's repair to Zed for fiberglass price quote and start of repair Friday,.
I'll keep you updated once I speak to Zed regarding work scope and down time for this repair,
While the boat is at Zed, I will coordinate with Noverania to visit the boat and give for firm quote to replace the Tubes as well.,

Along with acquiring a firm quote once rear deck fiberglass repair is completed, ballpark estimate for downtime for rear deck fiberglass repair is 5 weeks, sorry to say Zed always misses his estimated downtime, but he is the best in the business I'm told from several outside sources, he's worth the wait. If he says three weeks, it will be six,.

Thx
Larry
