

From: Cecile de Jongh <[REDACTED]>
To: Daphne Wallace <[REDACTED]>
Cc: "jeffrey E." <jeevacation@gmail.com>
Subject: Re:
Date: Tue, 01 Dec 2015 21:09:48 +0000

Hi Jeffrey,

John Woods called me a few weeks after he sent the letter to you. He wanted to know if the decision not to pay the invoice was final and I told him yes, based on what Daphne relayed to me. He said okay and thanked me for letting him know.

With warm regards,

Cecile

Sent from my iPhone and misspellings courtesy of iPhone.

On Dec 1, 2015, at 4:40 PM, Daphne Wallace <[REDACTED]> wrote:

Greetings Mr. Epstein,

John Woods was left with a open invoice of $8,000 (INV. 15-001.4 dated 9/22/15), and a pending invoice of $4,500 to fulfill the contract of $70,000.

His circumstance was not good - he really was in need of the money to make payroll and pay consultants that he had to hire to address the HVAC and other requirements for the projects.

He was not happy that he did not receive payment, and he disagreed with the explanation, which he expressed in the letter he wrote on 10/23/15, but he did not indicate to me or threaten to me to ask people not to work for you or the company.

Respectfully, Daphne

On Tue, Dec 1, 2015 at 3:20 PM, jeffrey E. <jeevacation@gmail.com> wrote:

how did we leave it with john woods, what is his circumstance. is he asking people not to work

--

please note

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of JEE

Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved

