Myths & Facts: Online Exclusive

Is Hamas Motivated by the Desire to End the "Occupation"?

"The Palestinians are only resisting occupation" is a favorite talking point of apologists for Palestinian terrorism, and Hamas' rocket attacks on Israel's civilian population are no exception. This fallacy was proven when Israel evacuated all troops and civilians from Gaza in 2005 and, instead of peace, was rewarded with an increase in terrorism. Still, Palestinians and their advocates maintain that "the occupation" is the primary motivation for terrorism against Israel.

Making Sport of the War in Gaza

Any civilian casualty during war is a tragedy. Nevertheless, innocents have suffered in every military conflict. Thousands, sometimes millions of civilians were killed in the Gulf Wars, World War II and the war on terror. The only conflict, however, where the media counts casualties like sport is the one involving Israel and its neighbors
