Hi Jeff

Not sure if my email got to you from classmates.com

I saw you had emailed me, but I haven't been on the site.

It's been a long time since our Coney Island / sea gate days.

Linda and I have had a rough few years.

Hope you are well..

What have you been doing.

I have find memories of us at your house, playing music and having a good time with no cares or responsibilities

I am an architect / builder in Staten Island and I live [REDACTED]

Where are you living ?

If you are ever in NY, let's get together for dinner

It would be fun.

My email is [REDACTED] and my cell is [REDACTED]

You're very old friend

Mark
