From: "Kickstarter" <news@e.kickstarter.com>
To: <jeevacation@gmail.com>
Subject: Projects We Love: From Earth
Date: Thu, 15 Jun 2017 21:34:22 +0000

Kickstarter

Newest Popular Ending Soon

Projects We Love

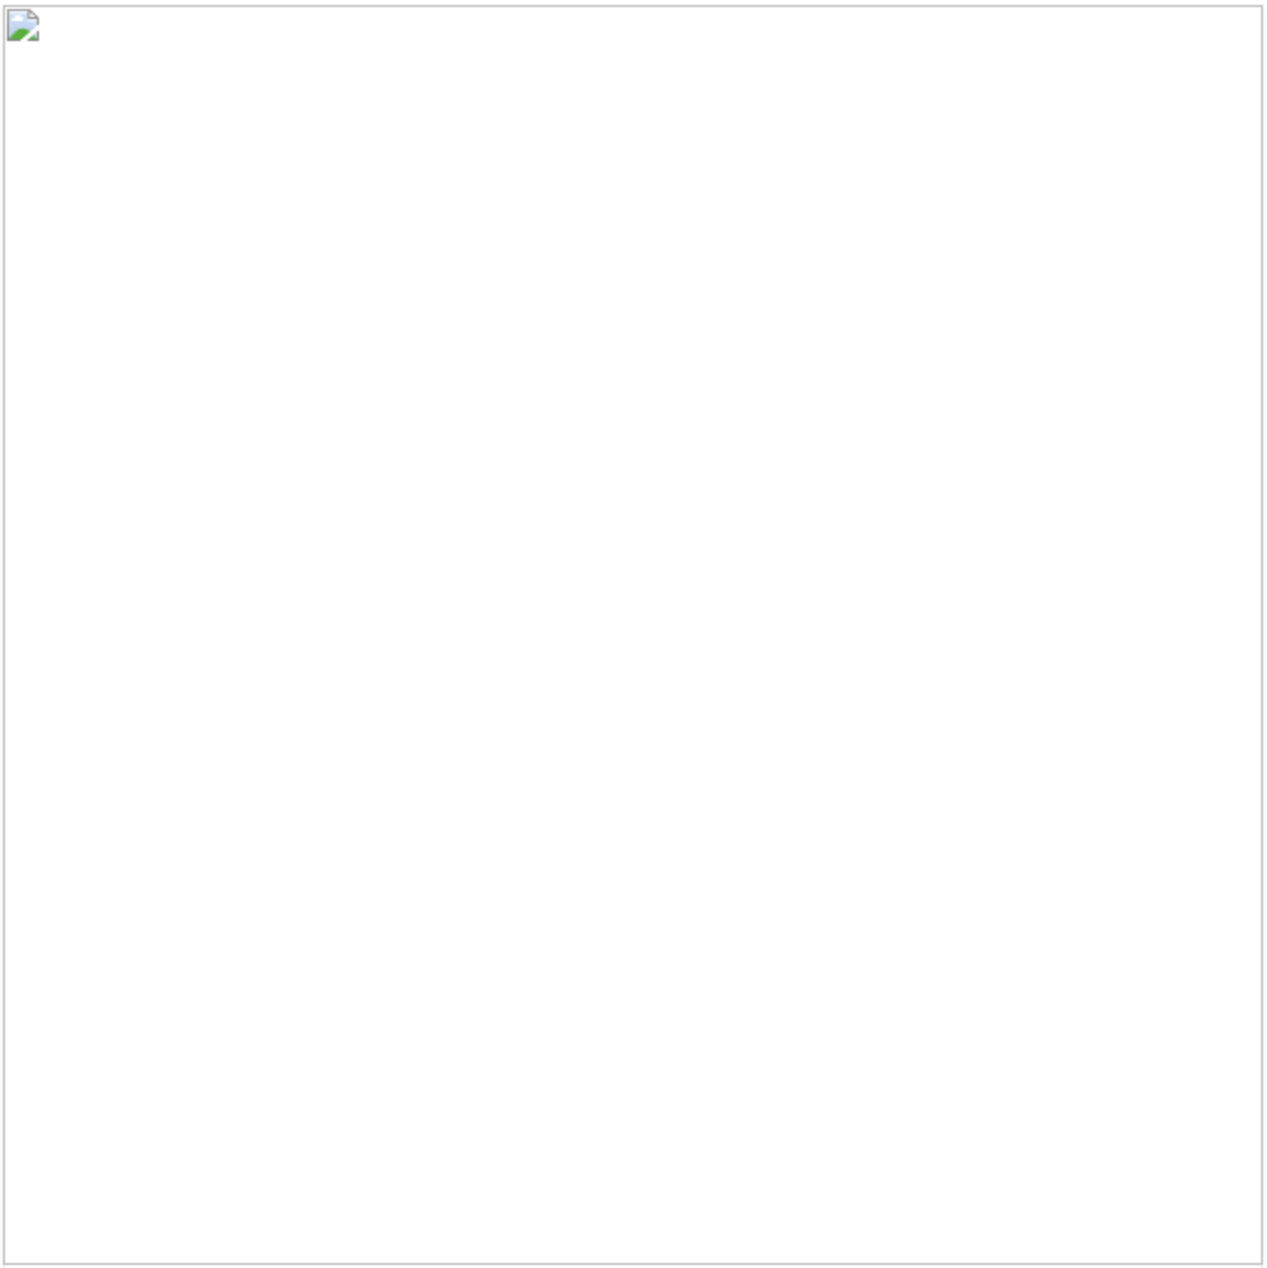
Announcing Projects of Earth: How to summarize human life? This was the question Carl Sagan faced when curating the Voyager Golden Record, a snapshot of existence on Earth sent into space forty years ago. And this September, you're invited to create something new inspired by the record's sights, sounds, and greetings.

Today, we bring you four projects that address facets of life on our pale blue dot.

By United States Holocaust Memorial Museum

Save Their Stories — Undiscovered Diaries of the Holocaust: Support this powerful effort to preserve and share critical first-person accounts of persecution and perseverance written by victims and survivors of the Holocaust.

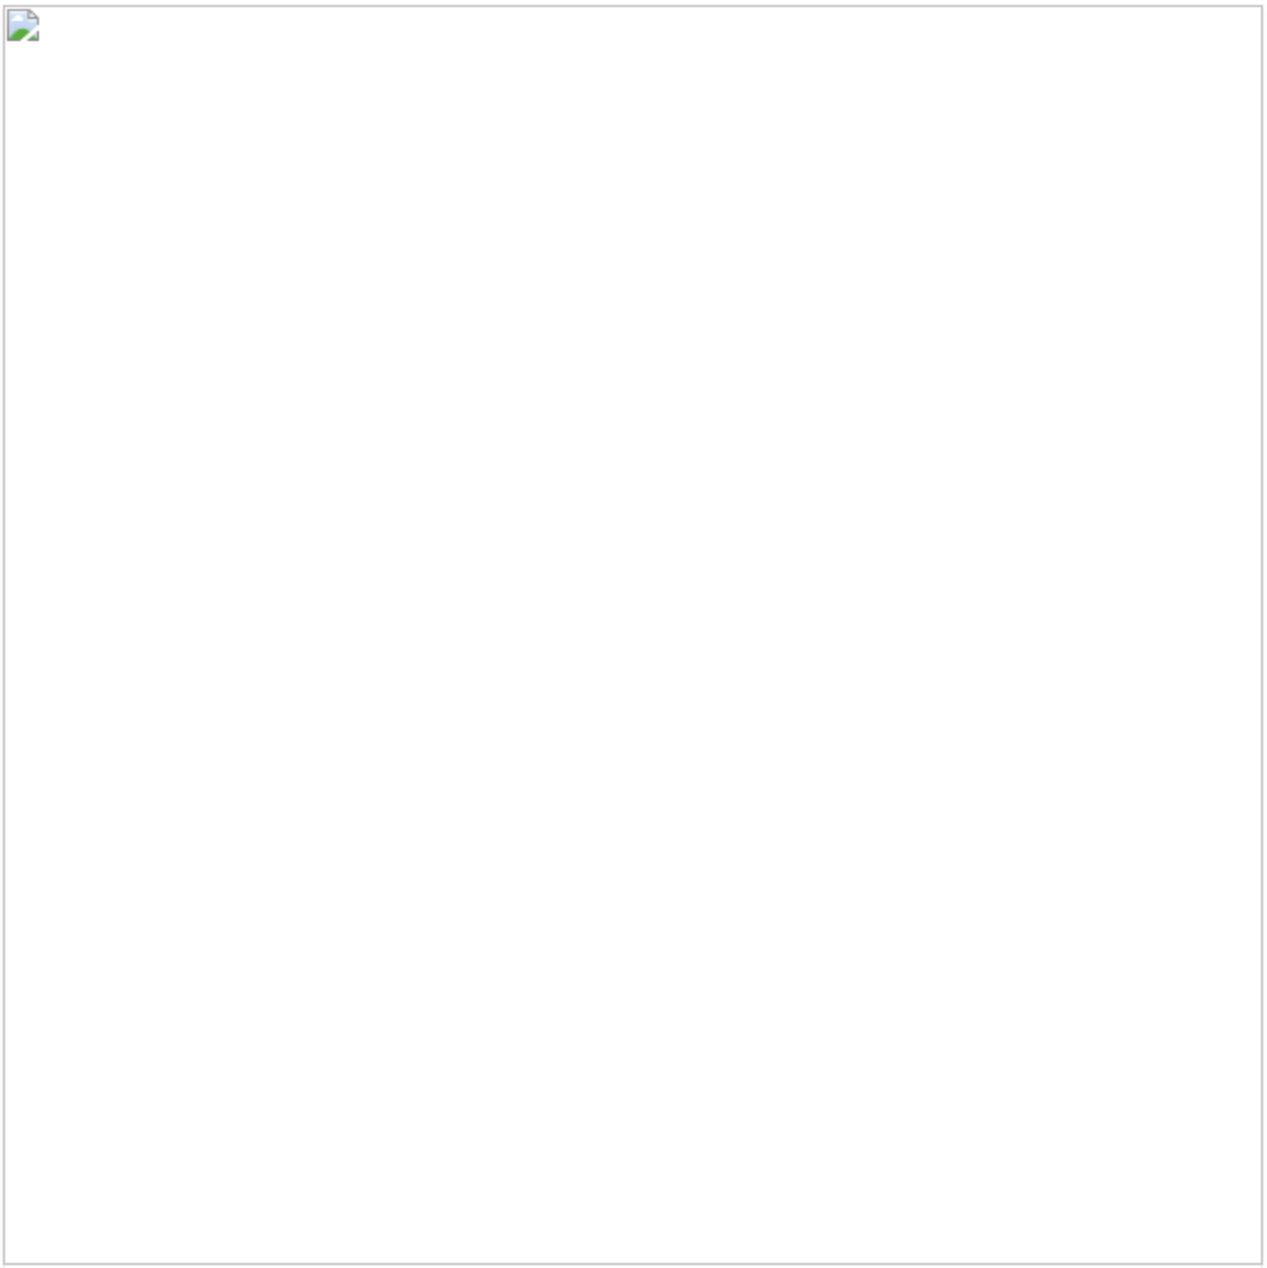
View project



By Sam Green

A Thousand Thoughts: The Kronos Quartet has sold millions of records, collaborated with artists like Laurie Anderson, and changed the way we think about classic music. Now, a one-of-a-kind "live documentary" aims to capture their forty-year history.

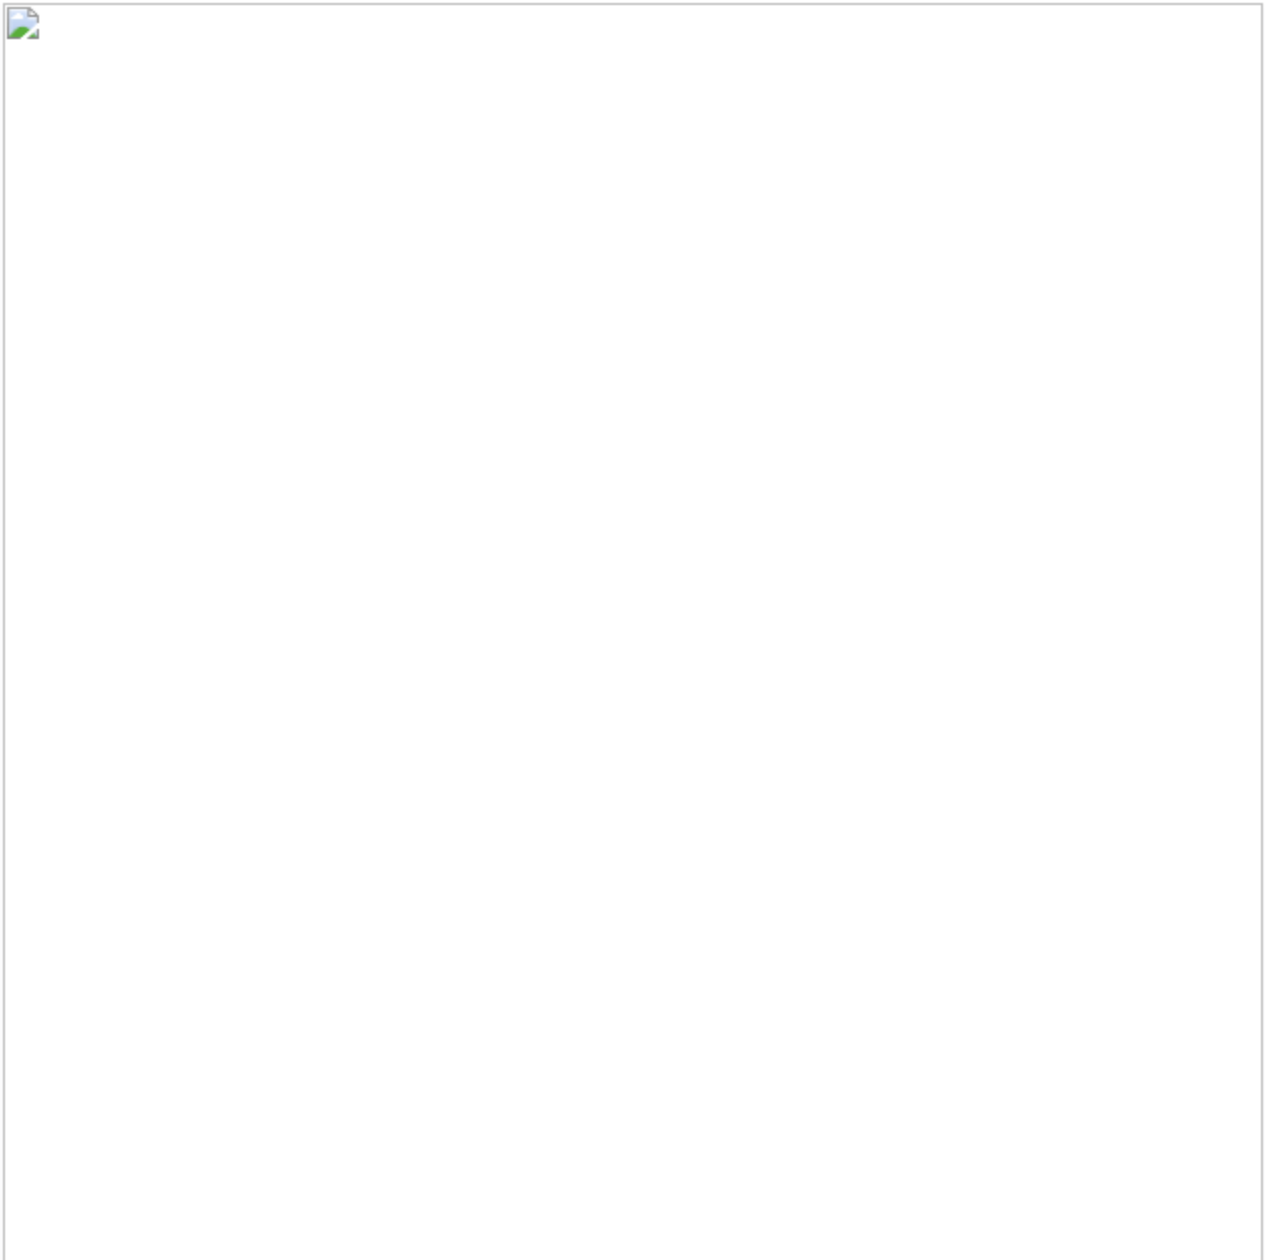
View project



By Franklin Robotics

Tertill: If this self-charging outdoor robot looks familiar, there's a reason. Created by the roboticist behind the Roomba, it's designed to take care of the weeds in your garden while letting your seedlings flourish.

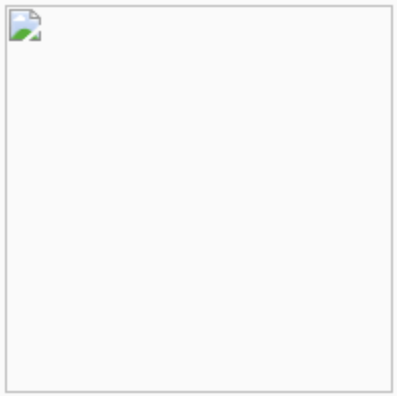
View project



By Radical Transport

Radical MOOV: Experience the world at new speeds with this safe and customizable electric hoverboard created with the guidance of Mark Cuban.

View project



INSIDE LUCY SPARROW'S ALL-FABRIC CONVENIENCE STORE

The New York Times takes a tour of the Kickstarter-funded "fauxdega" installation — which features candies, snacks, and toiletries made of felt — purposely constructed in a neighborhood where most real bodegas have been priced out.

Learn more

Kickstarter · 58 Kent St, Brooklyn NY 11222 · www.kickstarter.com ·
Contact Us · We're Hiring

Don't want to keep receiving this newsletter? That's okay, you can unsubscribe, or opt out from all newsletters.