The issue isn't the time difference. It is a strategy issue. I have been saying all along we need to send lawyer letters to the media general counsel. That will give them pause and I believe kill stories.

Question is all along what will the lawyers let us do? How far do you want to go?
I have a terrific firm I use in London, but what would the lawyers let the London PR folks do?

That is the issue we need to resolve. I will call you tomorrow morning.

I don't know paul i need his backround first. thanks id just let kirkland and ellis do it. otherwise, We accomplished very little this week, ghislaine s letter , stopped four articles that i know about and tomorrows is very toned down,, we on the other hand just sat back and got pounded, seperate from a three sentence released statement. I would like to talk to you over the weekend if you have time. With the huge time difference in london, should i hire a uk pr firm .
