If we want them to make the change and stop referring to you as a pedophile I think we need to point out that the conviction was for someone not 13 pursuant to the definition, or even 14 or 15, but 17 – and, we should give him the definition. There may be legal reasons why it could be counterproductive, but not – to my knowledge based on the facts as I understand them – PR or media reasons. Otherwise, under 18 just means under 18, it could be 10, which we know of course is ridiculous.

Please see additional suggestions. As I say in my comment I think it is important to point out that this young woman was 17, not 13, 14 or whatever and I think it is important to cite the definition, even in a footnote, of pedophilia.
