This is from the head of my digital practice:

Fergie has a lot of problems of her own making these days. She's not too hard to impeach if necessary.

That aside, if I were Jeffrey, I'd focus on building a personal website that allowed him to express his thoughts on a wide range of issues... business, his philanthropy. and so on, and not make all of this about this one issue.

Use Elliot Spitzer as an example... he apologized, moved on, refused to get trapped in never ending comments on his issue, and started demonstrating the intelligence that got him elected as governor. It's just a couple of years later now, and he has a whole body of reputation again that's unrelated to his scandal.
