Hi Jeffrey, sorry to bother you. Did you had a chance to send payment to Hackreactor? I sent their wire info on Monday.

Thank you,

As I understand I have to sign the agreement and put a deposit asap. The rest of the tuition will have to be paid within 4 weeks. I propose starting now. I think if I don't reserve now, they will push me to later classes. My class already starts later than I hoped it would be - June 29th until around Oct 1st. It is very good program and I guess they in high demand.

Thank you again for your financial support and letting me stay at your guest apartment in nyc. It was exciting, stress free and relaxing. I'm very grateful to you, because I was able to enjoy my life without worries. It is rare treat these days.

Jeffrey,

After long studying and preparation, I have been accepted to Hackreactor bootcamp. I'm very excited to participate in the program and believe it will help me launch a successful tech startup.

The full tuition is $17,780. In order to reserve my spot they require: sign a student enrollment agreement, deposit of $2000, and the rest (15,780) have to be paid within 4 weeks after signing by check or wire. All payable to Hack Reactor, LLC.

Please let me know if you still want to support me with this endeavor and I will send more details.

Thank you,

Jeffrey,

The bridge tournament is over and I had an amazing experience. Thank you for wiring 7k which enable me to attend the tournament. And thank you for letting me stay in your guest apartment. I will be here until morning of Dec 11th.

I want to confirm if your offer paying for the programming bootcamp still stands. I'm thinking to apply to school this month or at the beginning of the next month. If I get accepted, the tuition for 12 weeks program is 17,780. I would like to know if you still want to do that.

Information about the programming bootcamp can be found here:

Thank you,
