Thank you!

Not only that it was without them - there was also not much help from others. I did it by myself.

Also I even have two institutional investors - which is very hard for the first time fund.

Will tell you more when we speak.

Soon!!!

Wild ride!!!

When you are back in NYC? So much looking forward to catching up.

BTW - I closed my fund last week at the maximum of 200MM. In the last moment, I got so much demand (250) that I needed to cut a number of people. I got many major names across the all major area (like who is who) [😊]
