Hi Jeffrey,

On April 19th, 2012, I had sent Larry an email about a vacation request from June 21st through July 1st. I did give more than two months notice for this vacation request. I can start my vacation a day later on June 22nd, if that would help.

I had not heard anything back on the request so yesterday I asked Larry about my vacation. I believe yesterday was the first notice he has given you about my request. Unfortunately, I won't be able to move my vacation as I have 22 family members that will be vacationing in South Carolina for a family reunion. If I could have heard back within a couple of weeks of my request, I would have been able to change my vacation.

If you could let me know the specific dates you need me to fly, I could possibly cut my vacation short a couple of days, but won't be able to move my entire vacation until after July 5th. Sorry for any inconvenience about this situation.

Dave
